Prayer for Purity

May our mouths praise the love of God this morning.

O God, may we do your will today.

May our ears hear the words of God and obey them.

O God, may we do your will today.

May our feet follow the footsteps of God this day.

O God, may we do your will today.

The Gloria, short for "gloria in excelsis," is our hymn of thanks and praise to God that focuses on the redemption of the world by Christ's death and resurrection.

Collect of the Day

BCP 225

The Collect of the Day "collects" our individual thoughts into unified prayer that we might respond to the lessons we are about to hear.

A Reading from The Acts of the Apostles

1:15-17, 21-26

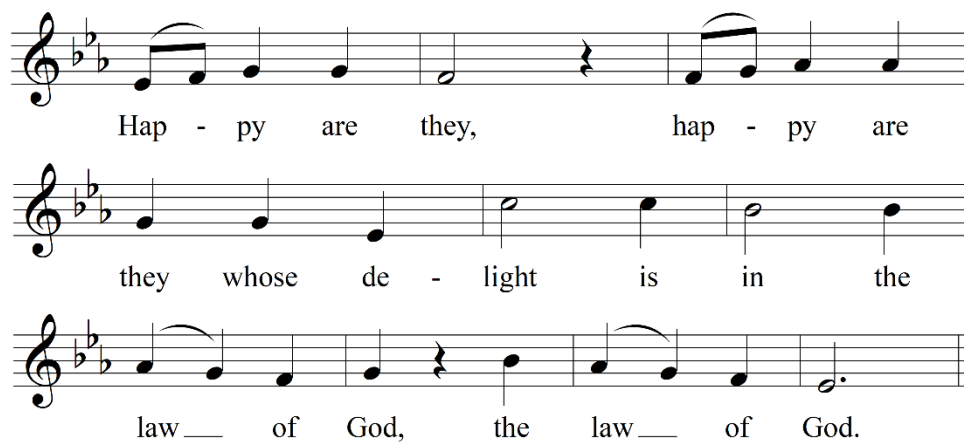

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said, "Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus-- for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry. So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us-- one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection." So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, "Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place." And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 1

St. Helena Psalter

Sung by the choir and then repeated by all:

Hap - py are they, hap - py are they whose de - light is in the law of God, the law of God.

Please join in singing the following verses (congregation and choir together):

Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, *
nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

Their delight is in the law of the Holy One, *
and they meditate on that law day and night.

Repeat Antiphon

They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
everything they do shall prosper.

It is not so with the wicked; *
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.

Repeat Antiphon

Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, *
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous;

For the Holy One knows the way of the righteous, *
but the way of the wicked is doomed.

A Reading from the First Letter of John

5:9-13

If we receive human testimony, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his Son. Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts. Those who do not believe in God have made him a liar by not believing in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. And this is the testimony: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people. Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able and sing.

The Holy Gospel

John 17:6-19

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus prayed for his disciples, "I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But

The Gospel procession into the congregation reminds us that Jesus came among us.

All turn to face the Gospel.

The Nicene Creed is the most ancient and important corporate confession of our faith. We are joining ourselves to the great heritage of the holy (of God) catholic (universal) and apostolic (witnessing to the resurrection) church down through the centuries.

The Prayers of the People remind us that in our worship we are connected to a larger fellowship – the Church – the Body of Christ, on whose heart lies the cares and concerns of the world.

now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers of the People

Written and read by Club 56 students.

We pray for our worldwide Church, and for all the friends and family at this church. In your goodness, Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for our country’s leaders and peace for our country. We are grateful for the people who serve our country such as police, paramedics and firefighters. We ask God to keep them safe. In your goodness, Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for peace in the world, for medical access for everyone, for understanding of each other and for unity. May God help us spread kindness throughout the world. We pray for causes that matter like women’s rights. In your goodness, Lord, hear our prayer.

We give thanks for our faith, for dogs, and for pet shelters. God please help us with the problems of pollution, littering, unkind ways, and too much screen time. In your goodness, Lord, hear our prayer.

God, we ask your help for our schools to be more disability-friendly and for there to be more kindness towards people with disabilities. We pray for those who are not in good health, and please send courage to those who are afraid of shots. In your goodness, Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for the families of the departed. We pray that God will take good care of the departed so that they may rest peacefully. In your goodness, Lord, hear our prayer.

We are grateful for our families. We are grateful for all singers who help people through the day and inspire us so that we can do anything. In your goodness, Lord, hear our prayer.

Prayer for Mother's Day

On this Mothers' Day, we give thanks to God for the gift of motherhood in all its forms. We pray for all mothers among us; for our own mothers, living and gone; for mothers who loved us and fell short of loving us fully; for all who hope to be mothers and for those whose hopes have been frustrated; for mothers who have lost children; and for those who have mothered children who are not their own, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Christ the Way of Life Possess Me

K. Lee Scott

Meret Bitticks, flute

Christ the Way of life possess me, lift my heart to love and praise;
Guide and keep, sustain, and bless me all my days.

Well of life, for ever flowing, make my barren soul and bare
Like a watered garden growing fresh and fair.

May the Tree of life in splendor from its leafy boughs impart
Grace divine and healing tender, strength of heart.

Path of life before me shining, let me come when earth is past,
Sorrow, self, and sin resigning, home at last.

Lord.____ Ho - san - na in____ the high - est. Ho -

The Sanctus, which begins "Holy, holy, holy," is a hymn of remembrance, consecration, and praise where our voices echo the voices of the angels who eternally praise God with these words. Our worship also includes the Benedictus, "Blessed is the one," a Christological acclamation of the coming of Christ into the world, taken from Matthew's gospel.

Standing is the historical posture of prayer, as is reinforced in the words of our Eucharistic Prayer, "...and made us worthy to stand before you."

The Fraction or breaking of the bread symbolizes the Body of Christ broken on the cross. This ultimate sacrifice of Christ is for us, a moment of both solemnity and joy.

Communion Anthem

The Disciples of Tomorrow arr. Richard Clemmitt
melody: Jacqueline G. Jones

Have you heard God's voice; has your heart been stirred?
Are you still prepared to follow?
Have you made a choice to remain and serve though the way be rough and narrow?

Will you walk the path that will cost you much
and embrace with love the sorrow?
Will you trust in One who entrusts to you
the disciples of tomorrow?

Will you watch the news with the eyes of faith
and believe it could be different?
Will you share your views using words of grace?
Will you leave a thoughtful imprint?

In your city streets will you be God's heart?
Will you listen to the voiceless?
Will you stop and eat, and when friendships start will you share your faith with the faithless?

Will you use your voice; will you not sit down
when the multitudes are silent?
Will you make a choice to stand your ground
when the crowds are turning violent?
